PRESS RELEASE for immediate release

1 September 2017 - The Royal Portfolio announces a new General Manager of Royal Malewane

The Royal Portfolio has announced the appointment of Adriaan Erasmus as the new General Manager of Royal Malewane in the Greater Kruger National Park.

Adriaan will commence his new role in October 2017 and brings with him a wealth of experience having worked at the likes of Necker Island, Tswalo and Ulusaba. He joins The Royal Portfolio from his most recent role as General Manager of Motswari Lodge in the Timbavati Private Nature Reserve. In addition, he has successfully run his own businesses. His wife and daughter will join him at Royal Malewane.

Edward Morton, the incumbent General Manager, will be moving from Royal Malewane back to La Residence as General Manager once he has handed over to Adriaan. Edward was previously at La Residence as General Manager for 9 years from 2007 until 2016. In addition to his responsibilities at La Residence, Edward will remain involved at Royal Malewane in a consultative capacity. Andrew Rosettenstein will be leaving The Royal Portfolio at the end of September after 5 years of service at both Royal Malewane and La Residence.

Kielan Kallis has taken on a new role as Deputy General Manager at The Silo Hotel having been at Royal Malewane previously as the Deputy General Manager.

The Royal Portfolio is excited about the fresh perspectives each individual will bring to their new roles and pleased to be able to offer such diverse opportunities within the Portfolio as it continues to go from strength to strength ensuring guests enjoy a complete circuit of luxury South African travel experiences.
